Although it was an informal party and the "glaze" was conspicuously absent, no Hellanthus dance in many a day has been more thoroughly enjoyed than the subscription dance at Hudson's last night. The orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Ray Hall, played a programme that simply couldn't be beaten and the company included: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dressel, Miss McBride of Des Moines, Ia., Miss Helen Haughey, Miss Calla Cutt, Miss Julia Larimer, Miss Frances Connell, Miss Floyd Robinson, Miss Maude Grimes, Miss Louise Kellam, Miss Alice Willard, Miss Elvia Mills, Miss Nellie Mills, Miss Mabel Glass, Miss Helen Ottis, Miss Lucile Pollock, Miss Florence Johnson, Miss Helen Johnston, Miss Lotta Johnston, Miss Helen Lindsay, Mr. Mike Murray, Dr. Robert Stewart, Mr. Dick Hayden, Mr. E. C. Curry, Mr. J. E. House, Mr. Harry Wolf, Mr. Harold Copeland, Mr. Dana MacVicar, Mr. Bert Reid, Mr. Frazier Cole, Mr. Ben Sandreid, Mr. Joe Wilson, Mr. Kurtz Kellam.

The dowagers have talked it over and decided that Peyton Westbrook isn't a marrying man because he is interested in very young girls, with whom he assumes the fatherly role, and married women. And that settles it. The others will now begin shoeing their daughters in the house when they see him coming down the street.

The subscription dance for the Tivoli and Varsity clubs at McRae's last night was attended by Miss Clara Fleischman, Miss Ra Hatch, Miss Hazel Jones, Miss Arline Dietrich, Miss Frances Brown, Miss Ethel Frizell, Miss Grace Koonitz, Miss Yetta Conkling, Miss Margaret Mills, Miss Edna Soep, Miss Helen McCintock, Miss Louise McNeal, Miss Hazel Larkin, Miss Gladys Scott, Miss Helen Lindsay, Miss Helen Shultz, Miss Berenice Healy, Miss Gertrude Kankla, Miss Marie Ziegler, Mr. Clarence Aten, Mr. Walter Welding, Mr. W. P. Williams, Mr. H. Ferguson, Miss Haughey, Mr. Quinlan, Mr. Adams, Mr. Leo Haughey, Mr. George White, Mr. Omer Smith, Mr. William Snyder, Mr. Warren Dunaway, Mr. Ralph Forrester, Mr. J. R. George, Mr. Harry Eagle, Mr. Earl Ewart, Mr. Arthur Wolf, Mr. A. B. Crossley, Mr. George Veale, Mr. William Stewart, Mr. Edwin Kistler.

A Topeka girl has an accomplishment which is the wonder and envy of all her friends. She is a perfect parlor trick and being a Perfect Lady she can't even tell the men about it.

Miss Helen Haughey entertained her bridge club and a few other guests this afternoon for Miss Blanche McBride of Des Moines, Ia., who is visiting here. The others were: Miss Clara Fleischman, Miss Hazel Larkin, Miss Emma Bolmar, Miss Margaret Goring, Miss Alice Meade, Miss Hazel Howe, Miss Eugenia Quinton, Miss Gladys Scott, Miss Isadore Heath, Miss Mary Sutherland, Miss Margaret Garvey, Miss Nadine Lytle, Miss Gertrude Hankla, Miss Gertrude Mulvaney, Miss Helen Sharritt and Miss Lucile Pollock.

The Owl girls sent out invitations yesterday for their annual holiday dance Monday evening, December 30, at Music Hall.

Mrs. E. D. Clithero gave an informal reception yesterday afternoon for her piano pupils and musical friends. Mr. and Mrs. Clithero will leave the first of the year for Waterloo, Ia., to remain permanently.

"I marvel," said a bachelor who was watching the Christmas shopping parade on Kansas avenue yesterday afternoon, "how a man makes up his mind to marry one woman when there are so many who look good to him. It makes me think of my answer when I was asked once what book I liked best. I thought and thought and thought. Just one book, mind you, of all the good books. Finally I decided that the best book was in two volumes. But in this case a man would choose an encyclopedia of twenty-four volumes at least."

Mrs. J. Howard Stuart gave a family dinner party today for Mr. and Mrs. J. A. McLean of Carthage, Missouri, and her little nephew, James Miles Hale in celebration of his second birthday anniversary.

A Topeka school girl has an allowance of twenty-five cents a week for spending money. The other day her younger brother was discussing with her some of his Christmas needs and mentioned that he was going to make a Touch on Papa for twenty cents to buy some things from the Five and Ten Cent Store for some of his school friends. "Now, look here," said the sister firmly, "I don't want you bothering papa about that when times are hard and there are so many expenses. I'll just give you that twenty cents out of my allowance."

"What!" demanded a wild eyed girl, who was rushing up and down the avenue with the Christmas fever yesterday, "Shall I give a man who doesn't

BLOUSE OF CLOTH, SILK OR SATIN.

Various materials could be used with good effect for the blouse shown in the cut. The model was of amethyst liberty satin, to be worn with a broad-cloth suit in cloth of the same color. The revers was of velvet of a slightly darker shade, and there was a smart little cravat of the same velvet at the base of the collar. The bodice had a tucked border and was trimmed with narrow round silk cord of the same shade applied as pictured. Passementerie buttons were also used in trimming, the vest and under sleeves being of French batiste and Irish lace.

"Well WHAT," shrieked her friend, "Shall I give a man who does?"

The Double Eight club will meet the first Friday in January instead of tonight with Mrs. John Solecki.

The Amateurs' Music club was entertained last night by Miss Jessie McCleskey and Miss Miriam Foster at the home of the latter. The next meeting will be with Miss Gertrude Cleveland and Miss Mary Dallas Gage at Miss Cleveland's.

The cut depicts a smart frock for at-home or informal evening wear. The design being sketched from a model in smoke gray crepe and cloth. The cloth was of very light weight and was in exactly the same shade as the crepe. It was applied in bands and was braided in very fine silk soutache. The cloth sections extended in stole effect down the front of the gown and formed a four-inch hem about the bottom, this hem being plaited with palms and in one with the crepe. The yoke and long lace sleeves were of white chantilly.

A woman's club composed of High Brows will suspend meetings temporarily and the reason is one of which you would never suspect club women.

The marriage of Miss Deva Griswold and Mr. Henry Young took place last night at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride, 406 Van Buren street. The Rev. Homer Foltz performed the ceremony. Mrs. Foltz at the piano played the wedding march and Miss Carol Hannum sang before the ceremony. The house was prettily decorated with palms and carnations. The bride wore white and carried white carnations. The company was limited to close friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Young have gone to their farm southeast of town where they will be at home.

Bill Curtis will give down town the other day and said to her, "What shall I buy for the future Mrs. Curtis? I've been thinking of a bracelet." "A bracelet!" she echoed, "you'll need at least a dozen."

PAPER TRUST MAKES BIG DEAL. Buys 550 Square Miles of Timber in New Brunswick.

New York, Dec. 19.—The International Paper company, it is announced, has practically closed for the purchase of 550 square miles of timber land in New Brunswick, containing 350,000 acres of spruce timber. A. N. Burbank, president of the paper company, stated that the problem of securing spruce wood for pulp has become a very serious one, and that as a result the price of print paper has increased.

Spruce wood, it is said, is now quoted at $10 a cord, while sales have been made at figures as high as $14 a cord. In some quarters it is predicted that the price of print paper in 1908 will be at least 20 per cent above the price that has prevailed during 1907.
